

Stewart Barney Holds Private Art Exhibition

Preliminary Showing of His Work Made Occasion for Intimate Social Function for 200 Guests

Mrs. Knapp Gives Musicales

Engagement of Katharine T. Keogh to Ensign Semple Interests Society Here

The vogue of the Sunday afternoon reception continues as the season progresses, and yesterday was chosen by several hostesses as a propitious time for the informal entertaining of their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Barney, of 51 West Thirty-seventh Street, made an intimate social function of the private showing of Mr. Barney's paintings, which are to be on view at the Elgin Galleries for two weeks, and about 200 of their friends assembled at a reception and tea there yesterday afternoon to congratulate the host on the success he has already achieved in the field of art. Mr. and Mrs. Barney were assisted in receiving their guests by their daughter, Miss Mary Alice Barney. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Warren, Mr. and Mrs. James Gerard, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Iselin, Dr. Mrs. John Rogers, Mrs. Arthur Cunnock, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Flint, Mrs. Henry Redmond, Mrs. James B. Haggan, Mrs. Thomas Teacher, Mrs. W. W. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Starr, Mrs. Mrs. Richard Garbille, Mrs. James Lowell Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Murray Butler, Mrs. Gouverneur Kortwright, Mrs. T. A. M. Mrs. Burke Roche and Mr. Davis.

Mr. Joseph Palmer Knapp gave the preliminary showing of his work yesterday which she is giving on Sunday afternoon at her home, 247 Fifth Avenue. About fifty guests were present at the preliminary showing, a member of the Elgin Galleries, gave a program of songs for their entertainment. An informal reception and tea followed the musical program.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Katharine T. Keogh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Keogh, of New Rochelle, and Ensign Lorenzo Semple, Jr., of the United States Navy, who is interested in society in New York. Miss Keogh is a granddaughter of her mother's side of the late Richard Stockton Emmet, and a great-granddaughter of the late Addison Emmet, an Irish exile and patriot. Emmet was a member of the Junior League, having made her debut three seasons ago after her graduation from the Ursuline convent and term of two years in the convent.

Ensign Semple is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Semple, of Mt. Kisco, N. Y. His father is a retired naval officer and his mother is a daughter of Colonel John McAnenry, of New York. He was graduated from the Naval Academy in 1921 and is attached to the U. S. S. Maryland, now in the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

Mr. J. Francis A. Clark will entertain at a dinner and reception at the Waldorf-Astoria, 247 Fifth Avenue, in honor of the Countess of Annesley.

Mrs. William C. Rockefeller will give a costume dinner in honor of her niece, Miss Isabel Rockefeller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy A. Rockefeller. The entertainment will be called "The Evening of the Past." The guests will be dressed in costumes representative of various countries. About one hundred guests have been invited, including all the prominent debutantes of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Witherspoon and Miss Louise C. Witherspoon returned from Paris, N. Y., yesterday to their apartment at the Ambassador. Mrs. Witherspoon's engagement to Mr. J. S. Cadden and Maxwell Norman. The initial dinner date of the season will be given at the Everglades Club next Sunday evening by his daughter, Mrs. Mackay Leroy, who passed the summer in France, have come from Chicago for their annual visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barkley Henry, of Philadelphia, have returned to their cottage at Little Graysbrook, on Sunset, N. Y., as guests on his houseboat Conrado II.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barkley Henry, of Philadelphia, have returned to their cottage at Little Graysbrook, on Sunset, N. Y., as guests on his houseboat Conrado II.

Mrs. Horace P. Chamberlain has come to New York from her home in Buffalo and is at the Lorraine.

Miss Margaret C. MacMillan, of 270 Park Avenue, will entertain twenty guests at a luncheon at Sherri's on Wednesday.

William C. Rafferty Jr. has closed his home at Sunset, N. Y., for a short while and is staying at the Ambassador.

White House Dinner Is Social Feature of Week

Many Similar Entertainments Also on List; Reception for the President Another Event

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Many dinners will be given this week in Washington in honor of the President and Mrs. Wilson. The diplomatic dinner at the White House Thursday will lead the list. Next is the dinner by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon for the President and Mrs. Harding on Wednesday. Among other dinners is the Monday by Mr. Hanthara, of the Japanese delegation.

Miss Katherine Temple Keogh

Her engagement to Ensign Lorenzo Semple Jr. was formally announced yesterday by her parents, Justice and Mrs. Martin J. Keogh

Justice that on Tuesday by Representative and Mrs. Fred A. Britton for General Pershing, and dinner by Mrs. E. L. Starr, Mrs. Richard Garbille, Mrs. James Lowell Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Murray Butler, Mrs. Gouverneur Kortwright, Mrs. T. A. M. Mrs. Burke Roche and Mr. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barkley Henry, of Philadelphia, have returned to their cottage at Little Graysbrook, on Sunset, N. Y., as guests on his houseboat Conrado II.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barkley Henry, of Philadelphia, have returned to their cottage at Little Graysbrook, on Sunset, N. Y., as guests on his houseboat Conrado II.

Mrs. Horace P. Chamberlain has come to New York from her home in Buffalo and is at the Lorraine.

Miss Margaret C. MacMillan, of 270 Park Avenue, will entertain twenty guests at a luncheon at Sherri's on Wednesday.

William C. Rafferty Jr. has closed his home at Sunset, N. Y., for a short while and is staying at the Ambassador.

White House Dinner Is Social Feature of Week

Many Similar Entertainments Also on List; Reception for the President Another Event

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Many dinners will be given this week in Washington in honor of the President and Mrs. Wilson. The diplomatic dinner at the White House Thursday will lead the list. Next is the dinner by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon for the President and Mrs. Harding on Wednesday. Among other dinners is the Monday by Mr. Hanthara, of the Japanese delegation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barkley Henry, of Philadelphia, have returned to their cottage at Little Graysbrook, on Sunset, N. Y., as guests on his houseboat Conrado II.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barkley Henry, of Philadelphia, have returned to their cottage at Little Graysbrook, on Sunset, N. Y., as guests on his houseboat Conrado II.

Mrs. Horace P. Chamberlain has come to New York from her home in Buffalo and is at the Lorraine.

Miss Margaret C. MacMillan, of 270 Park Avenue, will entertain twenty guests at a luncheon at Sherri's on Wednesday.

William C. Rafferty Jr. has closed his home at Sunset, N. Y., for a short while and is staying at the Ambassador.

White House Dinner Is Social Feature of Week

Many Similar Entertainments Also on List; Reception for the President Another Event

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Many dinners will be given this week in Washington in honor of the President and Mrs. Wilson. The diplomatic dinner at the White House Thursday will lead the list. Next is the dinner by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon for the President and Mrs. Harding on Wednesday. Among other dinners is the Monday by Mr. Hanthara, of the Japanese delegation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barkley Henry, of Philadelphia, have returned to their cottage at Little Graysbrook, on Sunset, N. Y., as guests on his houseboat Conrado II.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barkley Henry, of Philadelphia, have returned to their cottage at Little Graysbrook, on Sunset, N. Y., as guests on his houseboat Conrado II.

Mrs. Horace P. Chamberlain has come to New York from her home in Buffalo and is at the Lorraine.

Miss Margaret C. MacMillan, of 270 Park Avenue, will entertain twenty guests at a luncheon at Sherri's on Wednesday.

William C. Rafferty Jr. has closed his home at Sunset, N. Y., for a short while and is staying at the Ambassador.

White House Dinner Is Social Feature of Week

Many Similar Entertainments Also on List; Reception for the President Another Event

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Many dinners will be given this week in Washington in honor of the President and Mrs. Wilson. The diplomatic dinner at the White House Thursday will lead the list. Next is the dinner by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon for the President and Mrs. Harding on Wednesday. Among other dinners is the Monday by Mr. Hanthara, of the Japanese delegation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barkley Henry, of Philadelphia, have returned to their cottage at Little Graysbrook, on Sunset, N. Y., as guests on his houseboat Conrado II.

Jews of Four States To Raise $6,000,000 For Relief Abroad

Jersey, Connecticut, Rhode Island and New York in Campaign Mapped Out at General Conference Here

Jews of New York, Connecticut, New Jersey and Rhode Island united yesterday in plans to raise $6,000,000 for the relief of the suffering and destitute Jews of Eastern Europe through the medium of the American Jewish Relief Committee. Of the amount $5,000,000 will be obtained in New York City.

The plan was made at a meeting of delegates from all parts of the four states held throughout the day in the Hotel Astor. A minimum of $14,000,000 is set by the committee as the total for the fund, which will be devoted to assisting 300,000 orphans, 400,000 refugees and other Jews in Poland, Czechoslovakia, Russia, the Ukraine, Austria, Rumania and Hungary.

The main work of relief will be carried on in three divisions, according to Colonel Arthur Lehman, treasurer of the committee. Mr. Lehman said that the committee will be the granting of credit facilities to small merchants, artisans, workmen and farmers, the organization and increased support of trade schools and the purchase of food and implements for those who have no means of obtaining them.

State chairmen elected to take charge of the raising of the money were Eugene Warner, New York; Felix Fuld, New Jersey; Colonel Isaac Ullman, Connecticut; and Archibald Silverman, Rhode Island. The quota for New York State is $6,000,000, for New Jersey, $1,000,000, for Connecticut, $1,000,000, and for Rhode Island, $500,000 each.

The chief speakers were Louis Marshall, chairman of the committee; Julius Rosenthal, Chicago; Nathan Krass, the Rev. Dr. Stephen S. Wise, Colonel H. A. Ginsburg, Jacob Bilikoff, of Philadelphia, and David A. Brown, of Detroit, national chairman of the committee.

The appeals made by Mr. Marshall and Mr. Rosenthal were considered especially stirring. Pointing out that the 300,000 orphans could not pass the night in the open air, Mr. Marshall said: "They are your orphans and mine." Mr. Rosenthal said in part: "It is the gift of James Speyer in memory of his wife, who was the president of the New York Women's League for Animals. Mr. Speyer has given the academy $5,000, the annual income of which under the terms of the gift will be awarded for a painting or sculpture portraying an act of humanity toward animals, or a painting or sculpture of animals."

It is expected that the first award of the new Speyer prize will be made at the spring exhibition of the academy.

Former Solicitor General and Mrs. William Marshall Bullitt will entertain a company of forty-four to-morrow evening at their residence, 1717 L Street Northwest, in honor of the Chief Justice and Mrs. Tatt.

Captain and Mrs. Baby will leave Washington Wednesday for Charleston, S. C., where Captain Baby has been attached to the torpedo flotilla. Miss Ida Callahan, sister of Mrs. Baby, will accompany them.

Country Club Links at Palm Beach Are Opened

Prominent New Yorkers Among Those Who Have Become Members for Season

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

PALE BEACH, Fla., Jan. 15.—The Palm Beach Country Club golf links opened this afternoon with an exhibition which attracted throngs of people. Among those who have joined the club for 1922 are Harold S. Vanderbilt, Horace B. Work, Henry N. Schlemmer, Dr. W. Seward Webb, Edwin L. Arnold, Ellis Fairbank, Robert Dun Douglas, Vincent Hubbard, Edgar C. Luckenbach, Mrs. Charles I. Cragin, Mrs. James R. Mackay, Daniel H. Carstairs and I. Philip Clark.

Edward Dickerson, who passed the summer in Monte Carlo, has returned to the Everglades Club for the winter. Mrs. Darwin P. Kingsley gave a tea at the club in honor of her daughter, Miss Hope Kingsley. Entertaining there at dinner last evening was Gurnee Mann, whose guests included Mr. and Mrs. John A. King, Mrs. J. M. L. Rutherford, Mrs. J. S. Cadden and Maxwell Norman. The initial dinner date of the season will be given at the Everglades Club next Sunday evening by his daughter, Mrs. Mackay Leroy, who passed the summer in France, have come from Chicago for their annual visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barkley Henry, of Philadelphia, have returned to their cottage at Little Graysbrook, on Sunset, N. Y., as guests on his houseboat Conrado II.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barkley Henry, of Philadelphia, have returned to their cottage at Little Graysbrook, on Sunset, N. Y., as guests on his houseboat Conrado II.

Mrs. Horace P. Chamberlain has come to New York from her home in Buffalo and is at the Lorraine.

Miss Margaret C. MacMillan, of 270 Park Avenue, will entertain twenty guests at a luncheon at Sherri's on Wednesday.

William C. Rafferty Jr. has closed his home at Sunset, N. Y., for a short while and is staying at the Ambassador.

White House Dinner Is Social Feature of Week

Many Similar Entertainments Also on List; Reception for the President Another Event

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Many dinners will be given this week in Washington in honor of the President and Mrs. Wilson. The diplomatic dinner at the White House Thursday will lead the list. Next is the dinner by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon for the President and Mrs. Harding on Wednesday. Among other dinners is the Monday by Mr. Hanthara, of the Japanese delegation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barkley Henry, of Philadelphia, have returned to their cottage at Little Graysbrook, on Sunset, N. Y., as guests on his houseboat Conrado II.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barkley Henry, of Philadelphia, have returned to their cottage at Little Graysbrook, on Sunset, N. Y., as guests on his houseboat Conrado II.

Mrs. Horace P. Chamberlain has come to New York from her home in Buffalo and is at the Lorraine.

Miss Margaret C. MacMillan, of 270 Park Avenue, will entertain twenty guests at a luncheon at Sherri's on Wednesday.

William C. Rafferty Jr. has closed his home at Sunset, N. Y., for a short while and is staying at the Ambassador.

Ben Franklin's Memory To Be Honored Tuesday

Sons of Revolution and Employing Printers to Hold Exercises at Chapel

Exercises will be held to-morrow in honor of the memory of Benjamin Franklin and to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the commencement in Boston of his editorial career.

There will be a public meeting around the Franklin statue in Park Row, headed by the New York Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution, will preside. J. Henry Smith, Jr., of the S. A. R., will be master of ceremonies. The Rev. Dr. J. H. Addams, representing the New York Employing Printers' Association, is chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Public schools have planned Franklin day programs in which Franklin literature will be distributed. The annual dinner of the New York Employing Printers' Association will be held on the eve of Franklin's birthday.

At the declaration of the Civil War but aside from duties to exist in the Company of the 14th Regiment, Mr. Crooke, the 14th arrived at Centerville, Va., and at that same day took part in the first Battle of Bull Run. Crossing Bull Run at Centerville, he was wounded in the knee and he was wounded in the left arm. It later was found necessary to amputate the arm, but the leg was saved.

After the war, when General McLeer had fully recovered from his wounds, he was made first lieutenant of Company G of the 14th Regiment, N. Y. N. G. He was successively Quartermaster, major, lieutenant colonel and colonel, and on September 17, 1863, he became brigadier general of the 24th Brigade.

In politics he was active as a Republican. He was pension commissioner for Long Island, postmaster of Brooklyn, city auditor and a member of the Board of Assessors of Brooklyn. At the outbreak of the war he was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was elected to the position of commander of the local post.

His wife died three years ago. He is survived by two sons, James Crooke McLeer and Henry J. McLeer.

Mrs. Claire De Cardenas

Mrs. Claire De Cardenas, wife of Daniel De Cardenas, died yesterday at her home, 111 West 11th Street, following a brief illness.

Mrs. De Cardenas was born in 1878, the daughter of Roy Goulet, of Cleveland, Ohio. She was agent of the United States Savings Bank, and was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and was at one time chairman of the Daughters of Ohio Society.

Funeral services will be held in the Campbell funeral church to-morrow at 11 a. m. The Rev. Dr. J. H. McLeer, of the Church of Our Lady of Victory, Brooklyn, to-morrow.

Judge F. Amodeo Bregy

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 15.—F. Amodeo Bregy, president judge of Common Pleas Court No. 1, died early this morning at his home, 101 North 11th Street, after a four-year illness. With him when he died were his daughters, Miss Edith M. Bregy and Miss Katharine C. Bregy.

Judge Bregy served on the Common Pleas bench for nearly thirty-five years. He presided over many important trials, decided involved propositions of law, and was a member of the bar. His decisions were reversed by appellate courts.

In respect to the memory of Judge Bregy all the courts of the city will adjourn to-morrow.

Police Sergeant Vasatka

While donning his uniform yesterday preparatory to going on duty at the Alexander Avenue police station, Police Sergeant George Vasatka, forty-six years old, of 729 East 19th Street, fell dead. Dr. John Ringelman, assistant medical examiner, said heart disease caused death.

Vasatka had been in the department for twenty-five years. He is survived by his wife and four children.

John Lyman Mather

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Jan. 15.—John Lyman Mather, seventy-two years old, formerly Mayor and one of Northampton's best known citizens, died today. He was a contractor and built many of the city's public buildings. He also erected buildings at Smith College. He represented this district in the state Legislature for several years.

Princeton Heroes Honored

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 15.—The names of sixty-two Princeton men who fought in the Civil War, half of them in the armies of the North and half in the armies of the South, have been inscribed on one of the white marble panels on the wall of the war memorial room in Nassau Hall.

Gen. James McLeer, Civil War Veteran, Dies in Brooklyn

State Militia Officer Was Widely Known as the 'Maimed Hero of Groveton,' Formerly Postmaster

Brigadier General James McLeer, a former commander of the 24th Brigade of the New York State National Guard, died at his home, 309 East Twenty-second Street, Brooklyn, last night, after a long illness. General McLeer, who was widely known as the "Maimed Hero of Groveton," was a former postmaster of Brooklyn and was active in politics.

General McLeer was born in Brooklyn on December 8, 1839. He received his elementary education in the public schools of Brooklyn and began the study of law in the office of General Philip S. Crooke, then a leading lawyer of Brooklyn.

At the declaration of the Civil War but aside from duties to exist in the Company of the 14th Regiment, Mr. Crooke, the 14th arrived at Centerville, Va., and at that same day took part in the first Battle of Bull Run. Crossing Bull Run at Centerville, he was wounded in the knee and he was wounded in the left arm. It later was found necessary to amputate the arm, but the leg was saved.

After the war, when General McLeer had fully recovered from his wounds, he was made first lieutenant of Company G of the 14th Regiment, N. Y. N. G. He was successively Quartermaster, major, lieutenant colonel and colonel, and on September 17, 1863, he became brigadier general of the 24th Brigade.

In politics he was active as a Republican. He was pension commissioner for Long Island, postmaster of Brooklyn, city auditor and a member of the Board of Assessors of Brooklyn. At the outbreak of the war he was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was elected to the position of commander of the local post.

His wife died three years ago. He is survived by two sons, James Crooke McLeer and Henry J. McLeer.

Mrs. Claire De Cardenas

Mrs. Claire De Cardenas, wife of Daniel De Cardenas, died yesterday at her home, 111 West 11th Street, following a brief illness.

Mrs. De Cardenas was born in 1878, the daughter of Roy Goulet, of Cleveland, Ohio. She was agent of the United States Savings Bank, and was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and was at one time chairman of the Daughters of Ohio Society.

Funeral services will be held in the Campbell funeral church to-morrow at 11 a. m. The Rev. Dr. J. H. McLeer, of the Church of Our Lady of Victory, Brooklyn, to-morrow.

Judge F. Amodeo Bregy

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 15.—F. Amodeo Bregy, president judge of Common Pleas Court No. 1, died early this morning at his home, 101 North 11th Street, after a four-year illness. With him when he died were his daughters, Miss Edith M. Bregy and Miss Katharine C. Bregy.

Judge Bregy served on the Common Pleas bench for nearly thirty-five years. He presided over many important trials, decided involved propositions of law, and was a member of the bar. His decisions were reversed by appellate courts.

In respect to the memory of Judge Bregy all the courts of the city will adjourn to-morrow.

Police Sergeant Vasatka

While donning his uniform yesterday preparatory to going on duty at the Alexander Avenue police station, Police Sergeant George Vasatka, forty-six years old, of 729 East 19th Street, fell dead. Dr. John Ringelman, assistant medical examiner, said heart disease caused death.

Vasatka had been in the department for twenty-five years. He is survived by his wife and four children.

John Lyman Mather

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Jan. 15.—John Lyman Mather, seventy-two years old, formerly Mayor and one of Northampton's best known citizens, died today. He was a contractor and built many of the city's public buildings. He also erected buildings at Smith College. He represented this district in the state Legislature for several years.

Princeton Heroes Honored

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 15.—The names of sixty-two Princeton men who fought in the Civil War, half of them in the armies of the North and half in the armies of the South, have been inscribed on one of the white marble panels on the wall of the war memorial room in Nassau Hall.

The names are in alphabetical order, as they stood on the rolls of the university before they departed to join the opposing armies.

Birth, Engagement, Marriage, Death and In Memoriam Notices may be telephoned to The Tribune any time up to midnight for insertion in the next day's paper. Telephone Beckman 3000.

MARRIAGES

FIELD—MILLARD. On Thursday, Jan. 12, 1922, Grace H. Field, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Field, of 100 West 11th Street, and William H. Millard, of 100 West 11th Street, were married at the residence of the bride's parents. The Rev. Dr. J. H. McLeer officiated. There were 100 guests.

DEATHS

BEACH. Suddenly, in New York City, on Saturday, Jan. 14, 1922, Captain William H. Beach, 650 East 22d St., Brooklyn, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Beach, of 100 West 11th Street. He was 65 years old. He was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy. He was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy. He was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy.

BRINKERHOFF. At Upper Montclair, N. J., on Saturday, Jan. 14, 1922, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, wife of Mr. J. H. Brinkerhoff, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, of 100 West 11th Street. She was 65 years old. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy.

BRINKERHOFF. At Upper Montclair, N. J., on Saturday, Jan. 14, 1922, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, wife of Mr. J. H. Brinkerhoff, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, of 100 West 11th Street. She was 65 years old. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy.

BRINKERHOFF. At Upper Montclair, N. J., on Saturday, Jan. 14, 1922, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, wife of Mr. J. H. Brinkerhoff, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, of 100 West 11th Street. She was 65 years old. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy.

BRINKERHOFF. At Upper Montclair, N. J., on Saturday, Jan. 14, 1922, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, wife of Mr. J. H. Brinkerhoff, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, of 100 West 11th Street. She was 65 years old. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy.

BRINKERHOFF. At Upper Montclair, N. J., on Saturday, Jan. 14, 1922, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, wife of Mr. J. H. Brinkerhoff, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, of 100 West 11th Street. She was 65 years old. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy.

BRINKERHOFF. At Upper Montclair, N. J., on Saturday, Jan. 14, 1922, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, wife of Mr. J. H. Brinkerhoff, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, of 100 West 11th Street. She was 65 years old. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy.

BRINKERHOFF. At Upper Montclair, N. J., on Saturday, Jan. 14, 1922, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, wife of Mr. J. H. Brinkerhoff, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, of 100 West 11th Street. She was 65 years old. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy.

BRINKERHOFF. At Upper Montclair, N. J., on Saturday, Jan. 14, 1922, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, wife of Mr. J. H. Brinkerhoff, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, of 100 West 11th Street. She was 65 years old. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy.

BRINKERHOFF. At Upper Montclair, N. J., on Saturday, Jan. 14, 1922, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, wife of Mr. J. H. Brinkerhoff, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, of 100 West 11th Street. She was 65 years old. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy.

BRINKERHOFF. At Upper Montclair, N. J., on Saturday, Jan. 14, 1922, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, wife of Mr. J. H. Brinkerhoff, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, of 100 West 11th Street. She was 65 years old. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy.

BRINKERHOFF. At Upper Montclair, N. J., on Saturday, Jan. 14, 1922, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, wife of Mr. J. H. Brinkerhoff, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Brinkerhoff, of 100 West 11th Street. She was 65 years old. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy. She was a member of the United States Army and was a member of the United States Navy.

</